BIGELOW NEWS.

—Jesse Kahn was a business visitor in St. Joseph, several days, last week.

—Isom Channing has returned from Grand Junction, Colo., where he has been employed for some time and will work for Fred Gresham on the farm, this season. Isom is a mighty good fellow, and we are glad to have him back again.

—Eddie Catron was in St. Joseph, one day, last week purchasing new goods for his store.

—Mrs. W. F. Bain is in Mound City this week, visiting with Mrs. T. K. Armstrong.

—Almost everybody in town is having their gardens plowed this week, getting ready for the usual early garden truck. Quite a number have their early potatoes planted. The ground is working much better than usual, and prospects for good gardens were never better.

—W. B. Asher is reported to be on the sick list this week.

—Earl Book was in St. Joseph, one day, the latter part of last week, having repairs made to his gasoline engine.

—Mrs. M. J. Munn, who has been living in the Mrs. Bain property for some time, moved the latter part of last week to Fairfax where she has a daughter living.

—Will Coughlin, from Palm Beach, Florida, was here, several days, last week, visiting with his brother, J. Coughlin.

—Dan Larkins, Roy and Charlene and Miss Wilda Gresham were shopping in St. Joseph, last Friday.

—Don't forget the Red Cross sewing work at the Red Cross room every Wednesday and Friday afternoons. It is reported there is quite a lot of work on hand, and all members who possibly can should attend to help with this work.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Courier were visiting with Mrs. Ed Courier last Sunday afternoon.

—George W. Hinkle, the first of the week, sold 2,000 bushels of corn to the Bigelow Grain Co., receiving $1.50 per bushel.

—Mrs. R. W. Graham, of Arkansas neighborhood, was visiting with Mrs. L. A. Hunt, in the latter's new home, west of town, last Sunday.

—Miss Sallie Rock, of Kansas City, was visiting with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Poynter, several days, last week.

—Mrs. T. J. Bridgmon and Mrs. Ethel Osborne were shopping in Mound City, one day, last week.

—Charley Morris says that new Ford is sure "stepping right out."

—Charley Taylor, of Fortescue neighborhood, was here last Sunday, trying out our cement sidewalks. Charley has sown one hundred and seven acres of spring wheat on the Joe Catron farm, this spring.

—Second-trick Operator V. A. Solleder walked a mile and half, one day last week, to secure the services of an expert automobile repair man to go out on the road and tell him the reason his engine would not run was because there was no gasoline in the tank.

—Mrs. A. E. Smith and daughter, Miss Nellie, were here from St. Joseph, last Saturday and Sunday, getting acquainted with Tuck.

—Mr. A. J. Vanvickel, who was pretty badly hurt, one day, last week, when the wheels of the back he was riding in dropped into a rut, is still confined to his bed at his home, west of town, and it will be some time before he will be able to get out.

—Mrs. Fred Dean, who has been visiting with relatives and friends near Bethany, Mo., returned home the latter part of last week, and now Mr. Dean is wearing the usual old time smiles once more.

—Mrs. O. W. Adams and sister, Mrs. Chas. Harper, of St. Joseph, were visiting with their sister, Mrs. Cunningham, in Craig, one day, last week.

—Thirty-two scholars attended the Methodist Sunday School last Sunday morning, and the collection amounted to $1.60.

—E. L. Courier and son, Sherman, who were enroute from St. Joseph, to their home in Phelps, Mo., stopped off her last Saturday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Courier until Sunday morning.

—Rosie and Johnny Jones are here this week, from Omaha, visiting with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Asher and their many friends.

—Harry Haigler left last Monday noon for an extensive California trip, going over the Santa Fe to Los Angeles, from there to San Francisco and returning home by the way of Salt Lake and Denver. Mr. Haigler has not taken a vacation for a number of years and he will probably be gone all summer on this trip, going by easy stages and stopping off at any place that takes his fancy. He will stop at Lemoore, California, where he will visit for some time with his sister, Mrs. Geo. W. Hinkle.

—Miss Marie Shepherd is recovering this week from a pretty bad spell of the flu.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gresham and wife, of Mound City, Mrs. Allen Nottley and Mrs. L. W. Nottley were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gresham at their home last Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ira Chuning were calling on Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Vanvickel last Sunday.

—There are quite a number of flu cases south and west of town and two or three pretty bad cases of pneumonia, and Dr. Hogan is kept on the move almost day and night in trying to keep up with his work; so far all are getting along as well as can be expected.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Larkins and Roy and Charlene were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gresham, last Sunday.

—George Overlay was a St. Joseph visitor, one day, last week.

—Pretty chilly last Sunday and not many automobiles were out on the roads. West of town the roads are in good shape, showing the farmers are taking more interest in the roads this spring than usual. All roads west have been dragged, and it has been pretty well said that there are no roads between here and "East Bigelow."

From Galveston they went to Mercedes, Texas, returning by way of San Antonio, Texas. They report a very nice trip and they enjoyed it very much; the weather was fine. So far Mr. Dodson has not decided whether he will invest in any Texas land or not.

—The attendance at the Christian Sunday School last Sunday morning was thirty-two. Collection $1.23.

—Farmers are getting busy with their spring work, this week. Quite a lot of spring wheat has been sown as well as oats; the ground has plenty of moisture and is working better than usual. Stalks are being cut and the general work of the farm is starting out in good shape.

—Guy Jones returned home last Monday morning from a trip east, where he attended some thorough bred cattle sales. At a sale near Hartford City, Ind., he purchased a cow and calf, and at Stronghurst, Ill., one of the best thorough bred bulls ever brought to this county. This stuff is Polled Herefords, and is expected to get in some time this week. Guy says they have mighty fine, hard surfaced roads in Indiana, plenty of old style rail fences, and he had a very nice trip. Guy has one of the best thorough bred Hereford herds of cattle in the state, and buys nothing but the very best of stock that he can find.
